Lattimore Declares Under Oath Charges He Was Russia's Top Spy Not Supported By Evidence

Washington, May 2—(P)—Owen Lattimore declared under oath today that charges he was a Communist and Russia's top spy "are not supported by a shred of evidence, perjured or otherwise."

Lattimore called Senator McCarthy, his chief accuser, "clearly a bad policy risk" and tore into the Wisconsin Republican's background. He alluded to official criticism of McCarthy's conduct as a state judge and asserted difficulties over wartime income tax returns.

As for ex-Communist Louis Budenz—who swore high Communist officials regarded Lattimore as a Communist—Lattimore termed him a liar—"either a plain old-fashioned liar or a pathological liar."

GAMBLING IN KANSAS CITY UNDER STUDY

Washington, May 2—(P)—Senators dug into Kansas City's gambling situation today looking for any underworld link in the nationwide distribution of horse race news to bookmakers.

Their first move was to call representatives of the Continental Press Service of Cleveland, Ohio, before a senate commerce subcommittee which is studying anti-gambling legislation.

A federal grand jury reported that racing news is brought into Kansas City by Continental and distributed by the Standard News Service to bookies doing an $8,000,000 a year business.

Chairman McFarland told reporters: "I want to ask them (Continental) about any tie-in between them and the bookies."

Of Freda Utley, who said only yesterday that if Lattimore isn't a Communist, he acts like one, the witness said: "An equally strong case can be made that Utley herself for a time followed the Communist line long after she says that she ceased to be a Communist, and that she subsequently followed the Nazi line."

Lattimore, far eastern affairs expert and Johns Hopkins University professor, hit back in sworn testimony to the senate foreign relations subcommittee investigating McCarthy's charges that the State Department is harboring a lot of Communists and Red sympathizers.

It was Lattimore's second trip to the witness stand and he said again:

"I have never been a member of the Communist party, or subscribed to a conspiracy to overthrow and subvert established government."

When Lattimore testified the first time, on April 6, it was to deny as "contemptible lies" McCarthy's charge that he is Russian agent.

Nation's Political Spotlight Is Focused on Election In Florida

By The Associated Press
National interest focused today on a Florida primary election in which Democratic Sen. Claude Pepper is seeking re-nomination over Rep. George Smathers.

The Florida senate fight over-shadowed primary contests being decided simultaneously in three other states—Alabama, Ohio and Indiana. In the four states nominations are being made for three senate and 49 house seats.

Two of the states—Alabama and Ohio—are nominating candidates for governor.

The veteran Pepper carried into the deciding day a record of supporting almost all the Truman "fair deal" program.

Smathers, 36, has been accusing Pepper of dodging the Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) issue and of being too friendly with red-tinted organizations.

Pepper has in turn blasted the Smathers camp for circulating "dirty, vile literature trying to discredit me."

The Democratic primary in Alabama today—a test of states rights' 1950 strength—combined with Florida's as deep south attention-pullers that overshadowed primaries in Ohio and Indiana.

In both Florida and Alabama the primary winners were certain of election in November.

In Florida, around 600,000 registered Democrats were expected to go to the polls. The Alabama turnout was estimated at 400,000.

The possibility of a Pepper defeat was taken into account in advance by both Republicans and Democrats.

In Alabama, 158 persons are running for 72 places on the state Democratic committee which will control the Alabama party machinery for the next four years.

In the north, Democratic centers in Ohio, where Democrats are picking a November opponent for Senator Robert A. Taft from a seven-man field. Taft has no opposition in the Republican primary.

Washington, May 2—(P)—John Maragon, once on friendly terms at the white house, gets a jail sentence today for lying criminally to senate investigators.

Maragon was convicted last Wednesday on two charges of perjury himself about his bank accounts and jobs.

Federal Judge Jennings Bailey could give him as little as eight months to two years or as much as 10 months to 10 years on each count. The maximum penalty seldom is imposed.

Maragon's lawyer, Irvin Goldstein, said he would ask that his client be released on bail.

Washington, May 2—(P)—Some 2,500 AFL bakery workers went out for a week their nationwide strike against the Continental Baking Company. The walkout scheduled to start at midnight last night, was postponed six hours before the deadline at the request of the federal mediation service.

Plans for Annual Old Home Week Are Announced By Clarendon V. F. W. Post

At a well attended meeting held last evening in the borough building at Clarendon, delegates from the Clarendon Volunteer Fire department and the Marshall Larson Post 314, VFW, were in attendance. Announcement was made that the annual Old Home Week Celebration in Clarendon will be held this year from July 25 to 29 inclusive.

A schedule of activities for the week was set up as follows: Tuesday, July 25, will be "Ladies Night" with auxiliaries of both the fire department and VFW in charge of activities and entertainment.

Wednesday, July 26, will be "Fireman's Night" with a water battle for the mythical county championship.

Thursday, July 27, special features will include an air show and parachute jump.

Friday, July 28, a huge Kiddies' Parade will take place. This is expected to be one of the largest ever held in the county and invitations have already been extended to youngsters' organized musical units. Cash prizes and awards from many business establishments will be given for the best band, the best drum corps, floats, musical units and pets.

Saturday, July 29, the celebration will close with a fireworks display.

Pittsburgh Firm Successful Bidder for $220,000 Municipal Bond Issue for Proposed New Projects

LOYALTY DAY OBSERVED IN WARREN: Above are two views of Warren's first Loyalty Day parade, Monday evening, snapped by a staff photographer. One shows the Veterans of Foreign Wars band, and the other is the High School Band. The parade was sponsored by the Dinsmore-Schwung Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, with Homer Eitch as chairman of the committee. It is expected it will be an annual event. The affair attracted the largest crowd that has been seen in the business section since the Fourth of July parade of last year.

Record Budget of $646,304 Is Given Tentative Approval At Meeting of School Directors

Principal item of business to come before the board of education at its regular May meeting at the high school last evening was tentative approval of a record budget of $646,304, an increase of $31,669 over the current year.

The major part of this increase is a $22,600 outlay of state-required salary increases, reopening of kindergartens, and art supervision for elementary schools.

Taxes assessed by the board will remain the same as this year, 25 mills on real estate and $5 per capita, the state to reimburse the school district in the increase cost.

Following advertisement of the proposed budget and its public display in the office of Superintendent Carl E. Whipple, final approval will be considered at an open meeting set for May 22.

Neil D. Palerson was reelected treasurer of the board and R. Pierson Eaton was renamed school solicitor.

Arrangements were authorized for rebonding the treasurer and Charles Beck, clerk to the board.

Finances considered included receipt from the state of $1,249.59 for the lunch program; approval of cafeteria bills in the sum of $3,368.04 and for services, $793.62; approval of janitors' overtime, $154.30; substitutes' salaries, $777.90 and special services, $478.36; bills from the general fund, $5,314.41 and paid from the activities fund, $1,310.35.

The textbook and supplies committee approved adoption of five different mathematics books, five business education books, a new first-year German, new junior high health book, new first-year Latin, and new basic reading and spelling series. The report included purchase of supplies amounting to $89.19; correction service for correspondence courses, $350; printing and tape recorder, $450.66; audiometer with equipment, $311; new gowns for the high school choir, $1,054.70, this last item to be supplied on a repayment basis.

Buildings and grounds committee reported for approval purchases totaling $427.87; presented a low bid of $1,458 from S. H. Ramusack for renewing the Seneca heating plant; recommended payment of $1,310.35.

At the outset, Chairman Vintures (D-Gal) recommended the committee approve a two year extension of the draft but leave to congress the power to say when any industry would be inducted or any industry seized under the law.

At present, the defense department can call men up for service at any time. However, there have been no draft inductions since January 1949.

Vintures said the proposed draft act is not perfect but would serve until such time as a better over-act is passed.

Washington, May 2—(P)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley asked congress to keep the draft law alive because, as far as he can see, "there has been no letup in the aggressive extension of Communism toward its goal of world domination."

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff was the first witness as the house armed services reopened hearings on proposals to extend the draft. It is due to expire June 24.

Speaking of recent events such as the Baltic plane incident, Bradley said the situation "frankly gives us little cause for comfort and little excuse for delay."

New Bids on State Hospital Projects

Harrisburg, May 2—(P)—The General State Authority today called for new bids on May 24 for the construction of an addition to the cafeteria at the Warren State Hospital, and the installation of two freight elevators in its main building.

The authority previously opened bids on April 5 on the same projects but, rejected them because they exceeded the amount allocated.

Schumacher said there were no outstanding liabilities. It previously had been reported that the Memorial Board was pledged to an estimated $5000 to the Chester Engineers for plans for major improvements in the field, to be paid for on a use basis, but that this liability had been cleared by the Board.

A request by the Junior Chamber of Commerce to use War Memorial Field for the Community's Fourth of July celebration was deferred until the next meeting to allow time for the borough to actually receive the deed Council President W. E. Rice asked the Parks and Playgrounds Committee to work out some kind of an agreement whereby users of Memorial Field will agree to clean up all rubbish.

Numerous other matters came before council last night for consideration.

H. C. Johnson, borough tax collector last year, reported all but $3782.83 of the 1949 levy on real estate had been collected, and asked exoneration in that amount.

Council approved an allocation of $200 to the G. A. R., the V. F. W., and the American Legion units of Warren to help delay expenses of a Memorial Day observance.

A letter was read from R. Y. Kopf, president of Hammond Iron Works, in which he said the company was withdrawing its request for the paving of Lexington avenue for the paving of Lexington avenue for plans for major improvements in the field, to be paid for on a use basis, but that this liability had been cleared by the Board.

Council President W. E. Rice said Creal had distinguished himself as one of council's most active members, and that he had put in a lot of hard work as chairman of the new projects committee and in working out the details of the borough manager form of government and the zoning ordinance.

"Mr. Creal has been of inestimable value to this council," Rice added, "and it is with regret that he has found it necessary to tender his resignation."

Chief Haehn had headed the police department since Oct. 1, 1927. Prior to that, he served three years as a patrolman and four years as a captain. He is eligible for a half-pay pension under the police pension fund recently revised by council.

It is reported that several police officers in the area will be applicants for the chief's post when it is vacated. There also is a report that the solons are considering eliminating both the posts of police chief and fire chief, and combining the duties under the head of a director of public safety.

N. McConnell, the new borough manager, was director of public safety in Ketchikan, Alaska, in addition to being manager of that city.

KUNKEL GOING ON AIR
Philadelphia, May 2—(P)—Rep. John C. Kunkel, seeking the Republican nomination for the U. S. senate, will make what he describes as a major statewide address in Harrisburg tonight. The Harrisburg congressman is scheduled to speak at Shippensburg at noon before going to Harrisburg for the night speech. His Wednesday schedule calls for appearances at Waynesburg, and Washington, hometown of Senator Edward Martin who is backing Kunkel's candidacy.

Enabling Ordinance Providing For Increase in Indebtedness And Sinking Fund Is Approved

Warren councilmen, meeting in the borough building last night, accepted the bid of a Pittsburgh firm for a $220,000 municipal bond issue and then authorized the new projects committee to immediately advertise for bids for paving 10 streets as part of a long-range general improvement program for which the money is earmarked.

The successful bidder for the bond issue was the Stroud and Company, Inc., of Pittsburgh, which offered a premium of $1089 for the entire issue. The interest rate for the bonds, which will be retired over a 10-year span starting July 1, 1951, was set at 1 1/2 percent.

A combined bid from the three Warren banks and proposals from four other out-of-town firms also were received for the tax-free bonds. On recommendation of the finance committee, the solons adopted a resolution accepting the bid of the Stroud & Company. An enabling ordinance increasing the borough's bonded indebtedness by $220,000 and providing for a sinking fund to retire the bonds was then approved on all three readings.

The ordinance designates the money from the bond issue will be used for improvement and paving of streets, purchase of new traffic signal equipment, purchase of new fire equipment, installation of new sewers, and repair of the floor in the Third street bridge spanning Conewango creek.

The ordinance also provides that council will establish a real estate tax levy for the sinking fund, starting in 1951, to provide the following revenues:

1951 $32,000; 1952 $30,000; 1953 $30,000; 1954 $28,000; 1955 $28,000; 1956 $23,000; 1957 $20,000; 1958 $17,000; 1959 $16,000; and 1960—$14,600.

The vote on the ordinance was unanimous.

The new construction committee was authorized by solons to advertise for bids for paving the following streets:

St. Clair, South Market, Cedar, Verbeek, Lanwood, North Parker, North Carver, Canton, Locust and Brook.

The bids will be opened at the June meeting.

Ordinance Accepting Athletic Field As Recreation Center Is Given Approval

Only the actual transfer of the deed remained today before Warren Borough becomes the new owner of War Memorial Field.

An ordinance, accepting the transfer of the athletic field and recreation center from the War Memorial Fund to the Community's Fourth of July celebration was approved unanimously on third and final reading at town council's May meeting in the Municipal building last night.

The ordinance continues the field as a memorial to Warren County's "veterans of World War One" and World War Two, and provides that it shall be used as a public park, playground, athletic field and other public functions. In event use of the field for public purposes is ever breached, the field will return to its original owners.

Prior to the final reading of the ordinance, Dick Schumacher, president of the War Memorial Board, submitted a financial statement to council concerning the money collected and spent by the Board for the field. The statement was not read.

Schumacher said there were no outstanding liabilities. It previously had been reported that the Memorial Board was pledged to an estimated $5000 to the Chester Engineers for plans for major improvements in the field, to be paid for on a use basis, but that this liability had been cleared by the Board.

NEW PETITION RECEIVED ON ZONING LAW

A petition specifically requesting revision of the borough's Zoning Ordinance to permit erection of a modern, six-story apartment building at 404-408 Liberty street, with an access entrance at 210 Fourth avenue, was presented to borough council at the solons' May meeting in the Municipal building last night.

The new petition pointed out that (1) the zoning ordinance has only one residential classification; (2) that new apartments are not permitted in the residential area; (3) modern apartment buildings need ample space and that such sites are not available, or the cost is too prohibitive in the present Class-1 Commercial areas, and (4) that Warren is badly in need of a modern apartment building.

It also was stated that the proposed building would be of brick and concrete construction, that there would be no lap room or bar, and that the area surrounding the building would be landscaped.

The petition, signed by a number of Warren property owners, was immediately referred to the Zoning Commission. The next step will be for the Zoning Commission to hold a public hearing on the petition to hear testimony, both favorable and unfavorable.

An overflow crowd of visitors was on hand at last night's meeting in the interests of zoning.

Council President W. E. Rice read the reports of the Zoning Commission concerning two other petitions on which the Commission held a public hearing in the county courthouse last Wednesday night.

One petition asked that both sides of Fourth avenue, between Market and Hickory streets, be changed from a residential to a Class-1 Commercial area. The Commission reported that it did not feel that this was "advisable at this time." The petition was then withdrawn altogether by Attorney Warren Stone, counsel for the three petitioners, Plumber M. Printz, Helen Printz Davis and Frederic A. Printz.

The second petition, which also was aired at the public hearing last week, asked revision of the zoning ordinance to permit a change in the use of the property.

Washington, May 2—(P)—Judge Jesse C. Long is considering a demand today that a slain man's body be exhumed and another autopsy performed.

The request was made by Charles J. Margotti, attorney for R. L. Buzard, lumber dealer from near by Corsica who was convicted of second degree murder in the last night death of Waldo C. Ditty last year.

Margotti petitioned the court yesterday for a new trial for his client. He said the original autopsy was incompetently performed and that the jury's evidence in Buzard's first trial was not in accord with the evidence.

Ditty, Corsica, coal dealer, fought with Buzard in an argument over a coal bill. Ditty died a short while after the fight.

What Candidates Are Saying

By The Associated Press
A total of 4,847,813 voters are registered for Pennsylvania's May 18 primary election, complete registration figures from the state's 67 counties showed today. This is a drop of 70,882 from the 1949 enrollment.

Jay Cooke said in a campaign speech at Reading that agents of a "whisky combine" are advocating the candidacy of his gubernatorial opponent, John S. Fine. Cooke said the liquor interests seek "to obtain a monopoly for their products in the commonwealth's state liquor store system."

Judge Charles Scott Williams, who opposes both Cooke and Fine, said at Williamsport that supervision of boxing in Pennsylvania is a "tragic joke." He promised, if elected governor, to make a "real investigation" into what he termed the "boxing and wrestling rackets" in the state.

Gov. James H. Duff, at Scranton, described the public improvements made during his administration and said he is being "criticized and blackguarded by the old guard in my own party for making good on the party platform on which I was elected."

Mrs. Sara G. Leffler, Lebanon, vice chairman of the Republican state committee, told a group of women supporters of the Duffine ticket at a meeting in Harrisburg that if the Republican party is to get a "new face" it must first get rid of its "false faces."

Richardson Dilworth, Democratic organization candidate for governor, called at Beaver Falls for an overall highway program "to meet the needs of the future and not just political pressure."

State Sen. George N. Wade, anti-Duff candidate for lieutenant governor, called at Harrisburg for a reorganization of Pennsylvania state government comparable to the Hoover commission's work with the Federal government.

Joseph M. Stack, seeking to unseat William S. Livengood Jr., as a GOP secretary of internal affairs, said two other members of Livengood's family were on the state payroll at an annual cost of $17,230 to the taxpayers.

First Spring Garden Crop Is Appetizing Radish

Radishes are sown in almost every garden at least once. That once is enough to discourage many gardeners, because so often when the crop matures they have to throw away most of it.

The reason is the radish is one of the earlier vegetables, because it grows so fast. From seed to harvest is 20 days for the small globe type. Having rushed to maturity, it just keeps on rushing, and within a week the root turns pithy and the plants begin to think of going to seed. That's when the discouraged gardener digs most of the long row he planted and throws the roots away.

Keep in mind that the faster a variety grows, the shorter the time it remains in edible condition. The trick is to sow only as much as you can use during that short period, and make another sowing to mature just when the first one bows out.

In the case of the early globe type sow a week's supply at a time, which should be about six or seven feet in the row. Remember this type does not like hot weather, so stop in time to avoid that, and change to a midseason variety, which will be usable for two weeks, so two weeks' supply of them can be sown.

If you want a supply all summer, sow a late, summer variety for hot weather. But frequent sowings in small lots is a good rule for all except winter radishes which take two months to mature and remain good for six weeks. They grow very large, some weighing several pounds.

One way to grow early radishes is to mix them with the seeds of parsley, parsnips, carrots and beets, all of which are slow to germinate. Not more than a tenth as many radishes as the other seeds should be used. The radishes will germinate quickly, "marking the row" where the other seeds lie, which will assist you in cultivating. Be sure to pull and eat the radishes as they mature before they can crowd the slower crops.

Harvesting the First Radishes Gives Home Gardeners a Thrill.

Strong Protest Is Voiced Over Anti-Trust Litigation

One of America's top delicacy-producing firms, Butler County Mushroom Farm, Inc., voiced its strong protest today over anti-trust action which threatens to put out of business the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company. Ira D. Yoder, president of the farm, released for publication excerpts from letters he has written to the attorney general and Pennsylvania's senators and representatives in Washington, D. C.

"Charges (against A&P) do not correspond at all with our long actual experience with this organization," declared Mr. Yoder. Not only has A&P been fair in its purchasing over many years, he wrote, but "their splendid system of inter-communication... enables us to spread our supply over a much wider area than we could otherwise efficiently service. One telephone call to Pittsburgh is all we make to secure requirements of Pittsburgh, Youngstown, Chicago, Buffalo, Syracuse and elsewhere. This is of great advantage to us as growers."

Their efficient distribution, their extensive use of refrigerated cases, their attractive displays of merchandise, make this perishable product (whose shelf-life is limited to a matter of hours) available to the housewife in as perfect a condition and at as reasonable a price as is humanly possible."

Mr. Yoder continued: "If this policy of service to the grower and service to the American housewife is wrong, then the policy of all American business, large or small, is wrong."

Pennsylvania producers of potatoes, turkeys, fruit and other agricultural products have voiced similar support for A&P since the anti-trust division of the department of justice launched its effort last fall to break up the nation's pioneer streamliner of food distribution.

Methods of preserving cattle-hides and making them into leather-soles were first described by Homer in the Iliad almost 2,900 years ago.

Former Local Man Is Stockholder In Pipe Lines Corp.

A former Warren man was mentioned quite prominently in the news concerning the meeting of stockholders of the South West Pennsylvania Pipe Lines, Southern Pipe Lines Co., and Eureka Pipe Line Co., held in Oil City last week when directors for the ensuing year were elected.

John E. Selden, of Bradford, son of Col. W. V. Selden, of Oil City, was elected president of the South West Pennsylvania Pipe Lines, succeeding R. L. Cronise, retiring president and director. C. E. Loane, of Washington, Pa., formerly of Oil City, and C. L. Guignon, also of Washington, Pa., a former resident of this city for many years, were elected to replace Maurice Brewster, of Oil City, and R. L. Cronise, who were not candidates for reelection.

Mr. Guignon was appointed manager of the company in 1949 and has had many years of experience in field work with the National Transit Co. He was superintendent of the National Transit Co. in Warren for many years and lived at 13 Central avenue until he was transferred to Washington a year ago.

Scout Financial Drive In Sheffield Reported Over Top

Sheffield, May 2—Robert L. Jones, chairman of the Boy Scout financial drive in Sheffield, reports to date a total of $742.50 contributed with several workers still to report. This is an excellent report as the goal for Sheffield was only $500.

Scouting which was quite active in Sheffield before the war is being revived again with much enthusiasm being shown by the boys and the leaders. A Cub pack has been underway at Washington grade school for several months and two Boy Scout troops are in the process now of being organized with the orientation meetings for the parents and leaders being held now.

"The Senior Woman's Club will meet at 8 p. m. tonight in the home of Mrs. John Cochran with Mrs. P. J. Finerty in charge of the musical program. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Charles R. McNeal, Mrs. Ruth Titus Miller, Mrs. E. D. Hulise and Mrs. B. J. Hoover.

Last evening the Progressive Woman's club entertained their mothers and guests at a dinner in the Bide-A-Wee Inn, Warren, with 45 persons present. The tables were centered with beautiful bouquets of spring flowers which were later awarded to three of the guests, Mrs. David Ritchie of Warren, Mrs. James Hessley, Warren, and Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Sheffield.

As the program, Mrs. Art Boardman and Miss Irene Brown introduced Miss Jane Munn, Warren, who entertained the group with several readings and Miss Mary Kinestoba, Sheffield, who played accordion selections.

Mrs. James Farley, Mrs. Robert Dunn and Mrs. Donald Curtin were in charge of the dinner and decorations.

"Through the Christian Family" will be the theme of the program at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society to be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Bethany Lutheran church. Mrs. Pete Peterson and Mrs. C. W. Olson will serve the refreshments.

The Royal Neighbors of America will meet at 7:30 p. m. tonight in Cederlof hall with Mrs. Mary B. Slater and Mrs. Louis Slater as the refreshment committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch are the parents of a daughter born about 11:00 p. m. Eastern Standard Time last night in the Warren General Hospital. She has been named Cynthia Lee. The Fitches have a son, Bobby, who will be three in October.

DEFENSE COSTS ARE SOARING

If you ever get to thinking that we're putting out too much money for defense, it might be well to take a look at what's happened to the cost of things our military men must buy.

For example, back in the good old prewar days the average military plane bought by the government cost $880,000. Today it comes to $975,000.

The figures on planes are more startling when broken down. A wartime fighter costs $100,000, while a jet-powered craft to replace it will cost at least $150,000, maybe twice that. The original B-29's cost $2,000,000 each. Put a B-36 or a jet B-47 in its place today and the bill may hit $4,000,000.

A dozen B-36's flying over town on some ceremonious occasion mean $48,000,000, not counting operating costs.

This kind of expense isn't confined to the spectacular items. A jeep cost us around $1000 during the war; now it's $2700. The bazooka, useful anti-tank weapon, could be had in wartime for $36 but its current price is $122. Trucks cost double what they did five years ago. So do tanks. Even military uniforms have more than tripled in cost.

It isn't quite fair to assume from all this that we're getting only about half as much for defense for the same amount of money as we could during the war; for some of the added cost clearly means added quality. We're turning out bigger and better weapons because we must to keep pace with technical advances in warfare.

Still, we can't escape the fact that much of the extra burden simply reflects higher labor and material costs. A defense dollar just isn't worth what it once was.

The saddest part of this story is that much of our existing military equipment consists of wartime leftovers that must soon be replaced at present soaring costs. Some estimates suggest this replacement bill might add $5,000,000,000 to our defense budget next year.

If we intend to maintain the military establishment at a level of minimum safety, we can't avoid paying the cost of keeping our arms up to date. The longer we put off replacing outmoded equipment, the riskier and more expensive is this chore likely to become.

The colossal load a big defense establishment imposes upon the country today is a powerful argument for preventing the cold war from getting hot. The last conflict cost the U. S. $350,000,000,000. At existing costs, another one would take at least a trillion dollars to finance.

DON'T STIFLE JAPANESE TRADE

Reports from the Far East have it that General MacArthur is not only against Japan trading with Red China but opposes integrating Japan into a Southeast Asia policy.

Details on this are lacking. But if this surface account is accurate, it reflects a view of doubtful wisdom.

Japan is equipped as an industrial nation. Her natural outlets are the Asiatic countries which have raw materials and foodstuffs to trade for the products of industry. If Communist China is to be barred as a market, what is left but the southeastern nations?

Right now there seems little hope in more distant outlets. If Japan can't find places to sell its output, its domestic problems will mount to serious levels. Unemployment already is rising and production falling.

Since the war many observers have labeled Japan the bright spot in the Far East for America. Unless we re-examine our policy there and help the conquered Japanese to achieve a solid economic footing, we may endanger this hopeful bridgehead in the chaotic Orient.

One of the busiest sessions borough council has held in months, was attended by the largest gallery that has been present in some time, indicating an increasing interest on the part of citizens generally in the affairs of the city administration. This is a healthy situation and one that is certain to result in much good to the community.

Warren's first Loyalty Day parade under the auspices of the VFW Post proved an unqualified success from every angle, particularly in arousing the community to the importance of the day.

One of the most heated Republican primary election campaigns in the history of the state enters the home stretch, with but two weeks remaining before the voters go to the polls to decide the winners.

Wouldn't You Like to Know, Joe?

Here And There

It was forty years ago today that the Evening Mirror broke the news to the community that Today's Magazine, mentioned a couple times last week was to be moved from Warren. On April 30th the Mirror carried a story explaining that the magazine had changed ownership, and that it would be good news for readers to learn that it was to remain in Warren. Then on May 2, 1910, the paper came out with the following article, under the heading "Plant Will Be Moved!" "In the recent article which appeared in the Mirror relative to the sale of the Today's Magazine plant to Canton, Ohio, parties, through no fault of ours a statement was made which was far from the truth. We were informed that the plant would not be moved from Warren. Just what the official's idea was in incorrectly informing us we do not know, nor do we care. The contract under which the plant was sold contains a clause to the effect that the plant is to be moved to Canton, Ohio, at the earliest possible moment after the transaction is completed and is not to remain in Warren more than four months at the most." This And That: The Ludlow Wildcats are holding practice sessions getting ready for another big season. Most of the veterans of last season expect to be on hand and the team will be bolstered by new material from Kane, Sheffield, and Warren. The Wildcats plan to open their season May 28 and a schedule is being arranged to bring a lot of fast teams to Ludlow during the season. . . . Very few duplications of automobile license tags have turned up so far this year, the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles reports. Robert I. Shreffler, assistant director, said there has been some cases of owner card numbers, not coinciding with license plate figures. He commented after two Erie motorists, who received violation notices from Philadelphia police, said they were not in the city on the date of the claimed violation. That aroused speculation as to whether the mixup might have been caused by a duplication of license plate tags. Shreffler said, however, it more likely was a case of error in copying license numbers by Philadelphia police. . . . For perhaps the second time in Forest county history a governor of the state will make an appearance there, it has been announced, when James H. Duff, candidate for Republican nomination for United States senator from Pennsylvania, and his running mate, Judge John S. Fine of Nanticoke, candidate for governor, will visit the Forest county seat at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. They will be there for a public reception at the court house and will continue on from Tionesta to Oil City and Titusville. . . . Understand the candidates are to be in Bradford tonight. . . . John Johnson, former owner of the Ideal Bakery, sends us a postcard from New York where he is spending the weekend, preparatory to sailing Monday morning at eleven o'clock on the Liner Stockholm, for an extended European tour. . . . It does not appear that the zipper craze has reached Warren, in spite of the wide publicity the old-fashioned musical instrument is receiving in some sections. According to research experts with the World Book Encyclopedia, this is the second time the multi-stringed Bavarian instrument has appeared on the American scene. It enjoyed some popularity in the late 1800s and then faded into obscurity. We might add that either music was revived to some extent some fifteen or twenty years ago, when "fiddler contests" were being staged throughout the country. It will be remembered that the late Billy Munn had either music on many of the programs he staged throughout the section in search of old-time square dance fiddlers. . . . Brother H. Willard Gilpin, of St. Barnabas' Brotherhood of North East, who was one of the speakers at the anniversary program for the Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge at Trinity Memorial Episcopal parish house Saturday, April 15, delivered a talk to the Oil City Kiwanis Club today, speaking on the work done by the House-By-The-Lake and showed films taken there. By the way, here's a suggestion for program committees of service clubs in Warren. . . . Erick Carlson, 309 Prospect street, a carrier at the Warren post office, qualified for a very exclusive circle while playing a game of cribbage with Larry Tingwall, after work Monday afternoon, when he drew a perfect hand, consisting of three five spots, the jack of clubs, and cut the five of clubs. . . . Those Girl Scouts in the parade last evening were from the East Street school. They marched the entire route and seemed to be having the time of their lives. We'll be looking for you the Fourth of July, girls! . . . It was demonstrated again that people like a parade, regardless of whether it is a short one or a

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Battle Looms Over Revision Of Social Security System

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The long Chrysler strike—climaxing over three years of labor disputes in coal, steel, auto and other industries for pension and welfare plans—focuses attention on the coming Senate battle over revision of the U. S. social security system.

There have been some queer political and economic alliances in this struggle. An extreme right wing group—principally big business employers—has seemed to favor substitution of a flat, government pension scheme for the present contributory system.

The explanation for this stand is fairly simple. Labor unions have been demanding—and getting—contracts which provide that employers shall pay, out of pocket, the difference between government social security old age and survivors insurance benefits of around $25 a month, and a figure of $100 or $125 a month.

Employers want to get off this hook. Small companies say they can't afford to pay this differential, without tremendously increasing their costs. Their solution has been to have the whole pension burden shoved off on the federal government.

SOCIAL security officials and welfare workers argue that this may prove to be a shortsighted policy. Their reasoning is that a flat government pension would eventually mean that every person of 65 or over would be put on government relief.

Funds for paying government pensions for all would have to come from annual appropriations by Congress. In this status, these appropriations would be subject to downward pressures by congressional advocates of economy. The result might be less social security for all.

The position of some of the labor union leaders in this struggle is curious. By collective bargaining and by strikes, the CIO unions in particular have been forcing employers to grant pensions over and above social security benefits.

What these unions really want, they say, are higher government social security benefits. Not being able to get these benefits from Congress, they say they are forced to get them from employers. But their real purpose here is said to be to force the employers to support their drive for higher government social security.

A THIRD major force in this argument is the private insurance business. A little background is necessary to understand its position. Originally, the insurance companies fought social security. They thought government old age and survivors insurance would be a competitor.

It didn't develop that way at all. Instead, social security was the biggest policy sales booster the insurance business ever got. Social security paid only minimum subsistence benefits, at depression levels. They enabled insurance agents to argue that prospects should take out more insurance, to supplement their social security and give them enough to live on in old age.

Now, however, the insurance companies have a new fright. There is talk from the Townsend plan people of the need for $140 a month. The CIO has figured that the minimum need is $162 a month. Walter Reuther says the Auto Workers will have $200 a month pensions within 10 years.

If everyone could get an assured government plus private employer pension of $200 a month, the need for private insurance would largely disappear. Insurance company executives now find themselves in sharp disagreement with their natural allies, the big employers who seem to favor bigger and bigger government pensions.

HINDUS WASH SINS AWAY IN INDIA'S GANGES RIVER DURING A FESTIVAL

BERMUDA YACHT TEAM WINS AMORITA CUP SERIES FROM GROUP FROM U. S.

Copyright, 1950, by Acme Newspictures

A DIFFERENCE IN SIZE—Little Anthea Franklin-Edams, left, a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Margaret Mann to Lt. John Turvill of the Royal Navy at St. George's in London, England, just refused to join the other bridesmaids. Being the smallest of them all, she probably felt just a wee bit out of place among such other "large" young ladies.

RELIGIOUS BATHING—This aerial view over Hardwar, India, shows some of more than a million Hindus who made a pious rush to bathe in the holy Ganges River on the festival of Kumbh Mela, one of the world's greatest religious spectacles. About 30 of the pilgrims were reported trampled to death. The Hindu belief is that such bathing washes away sin.

A REAL "SEE" DOG—When little Alberto Svevo, of Brazil, and his sea-going dog, Brandy, arrived in New York, they didn't intend to miss anything of interest as the boat docked. The tot and the family pet had been on a trip to Trieste, Italy, and perhaps they're just showing their eagerness to get back home.

THEY'RE REALLY TINY—Lee J. Potter of the St. Louis, Mo., Humane Society holds the five, week-old foxes he found in a water spillway where a heavy rain would have washed them into a nearby river. The mother is believed to be dead so the little animals were taken to the Society's shelter and fed with an eyedropper.

CLEVER—This checked wool daytime dress, shown in Paris, has a skirt that swings wide at the side to reveal a black wool underskirt. The collar swings, too, and displays a dramatic stole that ends in fringe.

TRYING THEM ON—A six-week-old puppy tried on this bunny's oversize ears for size at the animal shelter in Kalamazoo, Mich. However, the rabbit had no desire to lead a dog's life and quickly broke up the act, leaving the bewildered canine with just his own set of ears.

HEAVY HITTER—A special bat, with attached baseball, permits young Jerry Mulvey, nine, of Lakewood, R. I., to take a lusty swing at a new-type, baseball-proof stadium light, in New York. The glass is guaranteed not to break, and the lamp was on exhibition with thousands of other new devices and products for industry.

DEATH NEVER PLAYS HOOKEY—Tearful Larry Papps, Jr., seven, tells police officer Walter Atwood how another youngster was drowned in the Wichita, Kans., Canal. The lads were playing hookey from school when the drowning occurred, and Larry probably won't try that again as long as he lives.

WITH THE WIND—International One Designs competing in the annual Amorita Cup Series between the Royal Bermuda Yacht Club and a U. S. group hit a good speed during one of the races on Great Sound, Bermuda. In the foreground is Sea Horse with Samuel Barton of Larchmont, N. Y., at the tiller. Bermuda won.

CAR HITS TREE—Two men look at the car that was driven by John Lacey Delaney, 40, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., which smashed into a tree in Boston after blowing a tire. 'Delaney was seriously injured, and there's not much of the auto left to inspect.

Splendid Speaker Secured By Women's Association of Presbyterian Church

Miss Olive Williams, of Buffalo, N. Y., will speak on "The Mature Christian and His World View" at the meeting of the Women's Association at First Presbyterian church at 8 p. m. Thursday.

The title of her talk indicates two of her major interests. She is a close student of world affairs and of Christianity, both emphasized in a partial list of her recent organization work.

She is on the international relations committee of the Buffalo Council of Churches, on the executive committee of the Council on World Affairs, a until it disbanded, on the Woman's Action Committee for Lasting Peace.

Miss Williams was a member of the consultant group at the San Francisco Conference for the United Nations, and on a recent visit at Lake Success, had an interview with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. On this trip to New York, she also saw the cornerstone laying ceremony at the new United Nations headquarters.

The New York Herald-Tribune Forum is an institution on which Miss Williams relies for information, and at the recent Forum, she heard Mme. Pandit of India, Barbara Ward of England, Senator Margaret Chase Smith, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Representative Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., Philip Willie, General Lucius Clay and General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The speaker's background includes many trips abroad, canteen service in France, interviews with persons in key positions and studies in Geneva.

A number of people in Warren have heard Miss Williams lecture, and say she is an excellent speaker. Her lectures have been given before many organizations in this area.

Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity Parish Elects

The Rt. Rev. Harold E. Sawyer, bishop of the Erie Diocese, was the speaker for the April meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity Memorial church.

During the business meeting, a gift of money was sent to St. Barnabas Home on Lake Erie, and plans were made for a delegation to attend the district meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary in Kane on May 3rd. The presentation of the United Thank Offering for May 18, Ascension Day, was also brought to the attention of women of the parish.

The election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Palmer Davis; first vice president, Miss Anna G. Rockwell; second vice president, Mrs. Allison D. Wade; recording secretary, Mrs. A. R. Stubbs; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Truesler; devotional secretary, Mrs. J. C. Allen; educational secretary and publicity chairman, Mrs. Richard Hansen; supply secretary, Mrs. L. P. Davis; periodical secretary, Mrs. Harold Hampton; United Thank Offering treasurer, Mrs. George King.

It was indicated several women are planning to attend the annual Diocesan convention in Erie May 21-22.

A very attractive tea followed the meeting, with Trinity Service League as hostess.

VFW AUXILIARY PLANS DESHON TRIP

At the regular meeting of Dinsmoor-Schwinn Auxiliary, VFW, plans were made for a bus trip to Deshon Hospital for Hospital Day and members or others having relatives or friends in the hospital are reminded to call 2411 no later than May 5 for their reservations.

Members of the unit are also reminded of the Northwestern Counties Council meeting to be held in Clarion May 7. Orpha Peck was named chairman for a rummage sale to be held in the near future. To conclude the meeting, a lunch was served by the committee on arrangements.

The auxiliary made its monthly trip to Warren State Hospital today, serving refreshments as part of their program.

Grandchildren of Tomorrow Neglected in Modern House

THERE'S one important thing the men who dreamed up the "modern house" with its efficiency, its lack of waste space, its rightness for today's living didn't take into consideration—and that's tomorrow's grandchildren.

What treasures can you store up in a modern, stiltless, basementless house for tomorrow's grandchildren? What can you save them from the past to give them that wonderful sense of realization that Mom, Dad and their grandparents were once kids, too?

When I was a child it was Grandmother who had saved the past for the children. It was Grandmother whose attic and basement held the treasures of her own and her children's youth.

There were scrapbooks of poems she had loved as a child, and souvenirs from many travels. There was a beautiful doll dressed in red silk that a child could take out and hold, but not claim as her own, for it, too, was part of a treasured past.

MEMENTOS TIE PAST TO PRESENT

MY own children have just fallen heir to a stack of books that belonged to their father when he was their age—and how real that makes his childhood seem to them. Stored away for years, they came out of an attic to tie their childhood to their father's.

But the modern house, with all the thought put into it to make life easy and pleasant today has no place for storing up the past for tomorrow.

In the modern house the moment anything has lost its usefulness, out it must go. There is no room to shelter sentimentality; no room to store up treasures for tomorrow's grandchildren.

And how can you make the past real to your grandchildren if there is nothing from the past they can see and feel—nothing but words? Yes, there is one thing that has been left out of the modern house—all thought for tomorrow's grandchildren.

THE American wife has been fed much guff about how if she doesn't do this and she doesn't do that she will lose her husband to another woman, and it will serve her right. So I'm looking for American wives to get fed to the teeth some day with that bunk and quietly rebel. The way it's been sold to wives, a man marries a girl and then sits smugly back and says: "Now it's up to you, babe, to hold me against all competition. Just let yourself slip a little, and it's too bad for you."

And there are so many ways that wives are warned against slipping. They're supposed to hold on to their youth and beauty. And never, never to look like housewives who have had a hard day battling the laundry and struggling with the children.

They are supposed to keep up with their husbands mentally, and to keep up with them socially. They are not only expected to master their own job of housemaking but to learn enough about their husband's business so that they can listen intelligently when he talks shop and be able to offer Solomon-like suggestions.

EXPECTED TO BE PERFECT

AND that's not all. They are supposed to be interested in politics. To do any volunteer jobs that need to be done in their community. And after they are through doing all this, they are supposed to be gay, glamorous companions.

If they can't quite manage to be such super-human beings, then it's their fault if their husbands grow tired of them.

Well, I figure the American wife is smart enough to wake up some day and start figuring it like this:

He married me and he said it was for better or worse. In a good many ways I'm taking him for worse. After all, he's not as perfect as I thought when I tremblingly said "I do." So why shouldn't he take me for worse in a few instances?

Maybe I'm no glamor girl. Maybe I have to go back and make him explain things a couple of times when he talks business. Maybe I haven't even had time to read the newspaper in a week. But I'm essentially the same person he married and agreed to stick by until death us do part. If he's any kind of a man at all, he'll stick. If I've got to compete every day for his undying love, then let him wander. Maybe I expect too much of women—but I do think they're going to get wise some day to all this "how to hold your husband" hokum.

Mr. - Mrs. Jerman Honored At Party

Approximately 75 relatives and friends greeted Mr. and Mrs. George Jerman in the open house held at their home, 112 Parker street, in celebration of their 48th wedding anniversary.

Given by their children, the party took place from five until seven o'clock Sunday evening, with guests presenting them a purse of money, cards, flowers and other remembrances.

A three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by white candles in silver holders, centered the attractive table, presided over by their daughter, Mrs. Harry Wilson, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Jerman, Jr.

Guests included Mrs. Martha Fuller, Springfield, O.; Mrs. Charles Mink and sons, Tommy and George, of Verona; Mrs. John Stewart and three children, John, Janet and James, Tidouste; Mr. and Mrs. M. Mahaffy, Buffalo, N. Y.

MRS. RALPH BEEDLE HEADS VALLEY UNIT

Mrs. Ralph Beedle was elected president of Chandler's Valley PTA in the annual business meeting held at the school. Other officers chosen were: Vice president, Mrs. Eugene Eckert; secretary, Mrs. Charles Kippie; treasurer, Mrs. Roy Darling.

Entertainment for the meeting was provided by pupils of the first and second grade rooms and refreshments were in charge of Mr. Mourer, Mr. Bosco, Mr. Slagle, and Mr. Reynolds.

Plans were made to send the new officers to the PTA School of Instruction being held here in First Presbyterian church today.

LEO SCHULERS ARE HONORED AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Forsgren entertained at their home on Onondaga avenue Friday evening to celebrate the 10th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schuler. Music was enjoyed and a smorgasbord was served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Schuler were presented with gifts, including a purse of money, from their many friends.

Jarvis and Hormell Wedding Apr. 24 In Uniontown Church

Beattie Ann Hormell, former dental hygienist at Warren State Hospital and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hormell, 29 Kerr street, Uniontown, was united in marriage with Howard W. Jarvis, of Warren, son of Mrs. Clara Jarvis, North Warren, in a candle-light ceremony performed April 24 in the Christian Missionary Alliance church in Uniontown.

The ceremony, performed by Pastor Joseph Wood, assisted by Rev. George Swanson, was the first to take place in the new church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert M. Hormell, Jr., and two little flower girls, Miriam Wood and Joyce Spear. Robert Hormell, Jr., was best man and ushers were Robert Miller and Emory Ringer.

Following a southern wedding trip, the newlyweds will reside at 15 West Third avenue. Mr. Jarvis, graduate of Warren High School and veteran of two years' service in the Navy, is employed by the Warren Dry Cleaning Company. His bride is a graduate of Uniontown Senior High School, with the Class of 1947, and of Temple University School of Oral Tygiene, Philadelphia, in 1948.

GLADE WCTU MEETING

GLADE WCTU members held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. John Anderson, 10 North Marion street, with a fine attendance. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Caroline Peterson, with devotions led by Mrs. Iva Belle Richael on the topic, "Building". The devotional period was opened with all singing "There Shall Be Showers of Blessing"; reading, "I Would Be True"; "I Am Thine, O Lord".

During the business session, officers gave their reports, including that of the treasurer, showing bills for flowers, $2, and for memorial books for Anna Copenborfer, Frances Mahaffy and Amella Bauer, $7.17. A memorial book for Otto L. Peterson was authorized. It was also announced a WCTU Institute will be held at the WCTU May 26, with all members and friends invited. Because of the institute, members were reminded the next regular meeting has been advanced to May 19.

For the program on "Alcohol Facts Against Youth", Mrs. Laura Johnson gave several readings, and the meeting closed with the WCTU benediction. To conclude, the hostess served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

BETROTHAL TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kondak, Clarendon RD 1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Helen, to Richard Bergholtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bergholtz, of Cattaraugus, N. Y.

Miss Kondak is a graduate of Warren High School and is manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company office in Salamanca, N. Y.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

Members of Warren General Hospital Auxiliary are reminded that the regular business session will be held at the nurses' home at 1:30 p. m. Friday.

long one. Before the time for the procession to get under way last evening the down town section was jammed with spectators—mostly children. Most of the male spectators must have realized the true significance of the event—it was observed that generally the men paid respect to the Stars and Stripes, either by removing their hats or snapping to attention. . . . Well, as several of the aides in charge remarked—"Loyalty Day is a warm up for Memorial Day, and Memorial Day will be a warm up for the Fourth of July!"

East Street PTA Elects Officers For Coming Year

Mrs. Beyer Africa presented the slate of officers at the regular meeting of East Street PTA and the following were elected to serve in the coming year: President, Mrs. John Mihalco; vice president, Mrs. Harold Baker; secretary, Mrs. William Ball; treasurer, Mrs. C. L. Kinney.

The session was opened with Mrs. T. W. Aldrich reading the PTA Prayer, followed by routine reports by Mrs. William Ball and Mrs. William Cashman. Mrs. Russell Lindberg was elected representative mother of East Street PTA to Brownie Troop 65, which is sponsored by the unit and directed by Mrs. Everett Borg. It was announced a Cub Pack is being formed and if present plans are carried out, the PTA will be its sponsors. Parents are attending preliminary meetings and it is hoped the Pack will be organized some time in May.

Mrs. Paul Pittman gave a report on the annual ice cream social to be held at the school Wednesday, May 10, 3:30 to 7:30 p. m. Members were also reminded of the School of Instruction being held today in the First Presbyterian church, with Mrs. Maurice Kitchner in charge of having signs made for the classes. Named to attend the Northwest District Conference in Greenville were Mrs. C. L. Kinney and Mrs. Carroll Fowler. The attendance award for the evening went to Miss Cole's first grade room.

For the program, Dr. A. Follmer Yorg gave a fine talk, "Warning—Appendicitis", giving symptoms and the importance of getting immediate medical attention when they are noted.

To conclude, Mrs. Gary and Miss Johnson, second and fifth grade teachers, presided for refreshments served at tables attractively arranged by the committee: Mrs. Claude Irwin, Mrs. Donald Barnhart, Mrs. Albert Sanden, Mrs. Carroll Fowler, Mrs. Guilford Jones, Mrs. Harold McNulty, Mrs. C. L. Kinney.

Chandler's Valley Pupils Will Give Concert on Friday

Sugar Grove, May 1—The annual concert of the Chandler's Valley school pupils will be given at eight o'clock Friday evening in the high school auditorium under the direction of the music supervisor, Mrs. Andersen. The program, to which all are cordially invited, will include two operettas.

Mrs. Clarence Sherrard entertained the N. B. Club and several guests at her home. High scores in canasta went to Mrs. Norman Abbott and Mrs. Burt Shoonover.

The Sugar Grove Volunteer Fire Company responded to another grass fire when sparks were blown by the wind from a brush fire on the farm of Harry Silvis.

Mrs. Clifford Storms and Mrs. Roy August attended a district meeting of the PTA at Greenville. Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Van Ord and Mrs. Gruber, of Lander, also attended. All the women represented the Farmington-Sugar Grove grade school.

William Stuart, former sheriff, is spending much time in Warren where he is assisting Burgess William Crosssett, who is manager of the Cooke campaign in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Joss and sons, Robbie and Andy, of Rochester, N. Y., are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schoonover.

Mrs. Ernest Landin and Miss Mabel Reese spent the weekend in DuBois and Johnsonburg with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ekdahl left Friday for Meadville, where they will join Rev. and Mrs. P. O. Eakin and go to Robinson, Ill., to visit a brother of the women, Verne Camp and family. Another brother, Earl Camp of Texas, will also be a guest.

Mrs. Harry Williams and Mrs. John Stuart attended the family birthday club meeting at the home of their sister, Mrs. Einar Hultman in Jamestown, Thursday evening. Mrs. Arthur Leux was the honored guest.

Plans Progressing For North Warren Dandelion Jubilee

"You can't kill dandelions. However you may try; You can't kill dandelions. We'll always do but never die!"

With these words the Dandelion Chorus will answer its critics in the operetta, "Dandelion Jubilee", which is to be presented May 19 at the community house in North Warren by grade school pupils performing under the direction of Mrs. Howard Anderson, music supervisor.

Ruthann Gerety, as The Wind, dances as she helps the Elves gather seeds. Terry Cruickshank, in the role of King Mite, leads the other Elves: Jon Larson, Leonard Strom, David Solock, Russell Rudolph, Bob Proper, Dick Smith and Kenneth Knopf.

They step lively as they plant a new seed in place of each dandelion which is uprooted by the lads of Dandyvale: Bill Wilson, Bill Dahl, Ronnie Sanden, Dick Rodgers, Dick Maeder, Gale Hudson, Robert Knapp, Dick Steber, Leonard Tower.

Angelo, the Angletworm, played by Pete Sanden, sings as he encourages the children and assures them they have not seen the last of the dandelions.

EVER-READY CLASS

Seventeen members of the Ever-Ready Class of Starbrick Sunday school enjoyed a tureen supper at the home of Mrs. Howard Flick, with Mrs. Millard Franklin and Mrs. Sam Armstrong, Jr., assisting.

Mrs. Forest Arnold, president, conducted the business session, which opened with the 23rd Psalm recited in unison. Many committee reports were heard and there was a general discussion of matters of importance to the group.

To conclude, games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robert Sidon, Mrs. Guy Schuler and Mrs. E. A. VanValkenburg.

The next meeting will be held May 25 at the home of Mrs. Albert Sidon.

INCHES OF GAS Cause Pressure on Heart

Slow digestion causes food to ferment in your stomach. Pockets of gas form (inches of it!) and this gas presses upward, crowds against your heart. Then you are in misery.

Hundreds here in Warren suffered that way until they got CERTA-VIN. This new medicine is taken before meals; thus it works with your food and your food digests FASTER and better, with less gas and bloating, and you get the fullest good out of your meals.

CERTA-VIN contains Ten Great Herbs, plus vitamin B and Iron. Therefore, it not only relieves gas; it also enriches the blood with iron and strengthens the nerves with vitamin B. Miserable people soon feel different all over. Son, don't go on suffering! Get CERTA-VIN at your favorite drug store. (adv.)

MAIL ORDERS FOR "JENNIE KISSED ME"

Edna Glasser, box office chairman of Warren Players, announces that mail order reservations are being filled this week for "Jennie Kissed Me", final production of the club season. Box office for the play, to be given May 10, 11, 12, will be open next Monday and Tuesday. Miss Glasser urges that reservations be made early in order to avoid last minute delay and disappointment.

FIRST METHODIST WSCS MEETING

The WSCS of the First Methodist church spent a pleasant time Monday evening at the home of Mrs. F. A. Wood, with Mrs. C. C. Winans, president, in charge. Mrs. R. H. Alexander gave the devotion. Mrs. E. C. Christensen, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a new slate of officers for the coming year which were elected as follows: Mrs. Margaret H. Kirk, president; Mrs. R. H. Alexander, and Mrs. L. P. Warner, vice presidents; Mrs. Sarah Jane Hartman, secretary; Mrs. H. L. Norris, treasurer. Miss Janet Strubholm, program chairman, presented Mrs. J. B. Leidig, a guest, and Mrs. N. B. Paterson, a member, who told in an interesting manner about a trip to Bethlehem to attend the Bach festival. Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mrs. O. C. Tritt, Mrs. E. C. Christensen and Mrs. H. M. Boyd, assisted by the hostess.

REBEKAH LODGE WILL SPONSOR PARTY

Convening their regular lodge session at 7:30 p. m. Friday, members of Lady Warren Rebekah Lodge will follow the business meeting with a public card party. There will be prizes for bridge, five hundred and canasta and the committee will serve refreshments. Those in charge will be Florence Loney, Edna Simpson, Martha Sanden, Hattie Godel, Eva Christensen and Ella Wallace.

At last week's session, the group enjoyed a fine program in celebration of the 181st anniversary of the Order of Odd Fellows. Martha Edwards and Florence Knapp gave interesting histories of both orders and the committee served refreshments.

WEDDING DATE SET

Sheffield, May 2—Saturday, May 13, has been set as the date of the wedding of Miss Beverly Anne Jones, 107 Oak street, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Jones, and George Hoden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoden, 5 Tan street. They will be wed in a private ceremony at one-thirty o'clock in the rectory of St. Michael's Greek Rite Catholic church by the Rev. Silas J. Treliak.

Following the private ceremony a reception will be held at the family home on Oak street from three to five o'clock.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Sheffield High School with the class of 1947. Her fiancé, who was graduated from Sheffield high school in 1947, is employed at the New Process Company, Warren.

PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN TO RECEIVE TESTS

Russell, May 2—Families who have children who will be of school age by September, 1950, are requested to send them to the Russell school Tuesday, May 9, where Miss Gates will give maturity tests. Those on the bus route may come on the morning school bus and be excused after the test if parents will provide a way home. Tests will be given in the afternoon for those residing in town. The present first grade will not be in session on that day.

CAMP DIRECTOR SPENDS WEEKEND HERE

Irene Kirchner, of New Brighton, who has been engaged by Warren County Girl Scout Council to direct the summer program at Camp Birdsall Edey, spent the past weekend in town. She spent Saturday at the camp site, acquainting herself with its facilities and exploring program possibilities for the season. She will assume her director's duties on June 13.

MEETING POSTPONED

The meeting of the Starbrick PTA scheduled for tomorrow evening has been postponed until next Wednesday evening when there will be a tureen dinner and family night program.

Local Post Office Is Making Plans To Curtail Its Services

Postmaster J. K. Bell announces today that arrangements have been worked out for curtailing mail deliveries and postal service in Warren to comply with the recent order sent out from Washington. On Friday and Saturday of this week trials will be made on one-day deliveries, which will go into effect on Monday. In the meantime, considerable work will be required in changing the cases at the post office, rerouting deliveries and other details.

Carriers will leave the post office at ten o'clock instead of nine, and remain out until all deliveries have been completed, which in many instances will be during the afternoon. Four carriers will be assigned to the business district which will be given first consideration in deliveries. It is hoped that mail received off the two morning trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad, can be distributed and delivered each day, although this will depend pretty much on whether the trains arrive on or near schedule times.

As usual there will be but one delivery on Saturdays. A change in the window schedules starting May 20, will affect only the general delivery and parcel post window, including stamp sales, which will be open from eight a. m. until six p. m., instead of opening at seven. Usual half-day schedules will prevail at the windows on Saturdays.

Sacred Concert At Youngville Church Enjoyed By Crowd

Youngville, May 2—A splendid sacred concert was given at 5 p. m. Sunday in Youngville Methodist church by the large choir from Clarion State Teachers College, directed by William Hart, musical director at the college.

Numbers were well chosen and the program was devotional in character with a selection of hymns, anthems, solos, duets and also a number of Negro Spirituals. The program continued from 5 until 6 p. m. when members of the visiting choir, over fifty in number, were invited to the church dining room where members of the Youngville Choir of which Elton Barton is director, served a pleasant luncheon. The group then headed for Warren where they appeared for a Sunday evening program.

Memorial Day Program

Rev. Fred Hunt will speak at 2:30 p. m. in the Youngville general community memorial service to be held in the Methodist church on Sunday, May 28th. The program is under direction of the local Ministerial Association and the afternoon hour was chosen so that it would not conflict with any of the local Sunday church services. Rev. Fred Hunt, the speaker, was a chaplain in World War II and is now a Major in the Reserves. He was in Japan, China, Europe and other war sections as well as serving on army transports with troops. He has a patriotic and spiritual message which is always warmly welcomed at this service which is interdenominational. It is expected that the Men's Chorus from the E. U. B. church will take part in the program.

TABITHA SEWING SOCIETY

The Tabitha Sewing Society will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Martin Jaspersen, 21 Dartmouth street, Thursday afternoon. All members are urged to be present.

Two Birthdays were observed

In one family on the same day when Beverly Sittler and her grandfather, Harold Farrell, celebrated. Beverly was eight years old and had sixteen little guests present for her Saturday birthday in the afternoon. The group enjoyed games and ice cream and cake were served from a table decorated appropriately. Beverly received lovely gifts from her friends. Mr. Farrell's birthday celebration took the form of a birthday supper at 6 p. m. with a group of relatives and friends present. A special birthday cake honored this occasion and later in the evening, during the social time, Frank Farrell entertained with accordion numbers.

A rummage sale is being sponsored by the Methodist WSCS in the Agnew building, formerly First National Bank building. The sale will be held Friday and Saturday, May 12th and 13th, and Friday and Saturday, May 19th and 20th.

Clyde Pierson is now studying a special insurance course in Hartford, Conn.

Friends here are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Mattie Gaunt, widow of Paul Gaunt. Both are well remembered as former local residents. Mrs. Gaunt's death occurred in Youngville and Mrs. Gaunt's death this April occurred at the Cottage Hospital, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich.

Recent callers at the Methodist parsonage were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Randall and Rev. A. R. Millard, all of Erie.

Youngville Boro Council Adopts Two Ordinances

Youngville borough council, at its May meeting held last evening, enacted two new ordinances as its chief business of the evening.

Ordinance 211, providing for the extension of water lines on College avenue extension on the north side for a distance of 245 feet, passed first, second and third readings. It is expected that work on this project will get under way at an early date, as there are no right-of-ways to hold up the job such as have been encountered on the West Main street extension project.

Ordinance 212, passing first, second and third readings, established a shade tree commission for the borough, consisting of three members to be appointed by Burgess Warren Kay. The commission will have control of all trees in the city, having the power to inspect, plant, trim, maintain or remove. The ordinance was passed with the matter of public safety in mind, there being several trees in town which are considered dangerous.

Mention was made again of the annual spring clean-up days, set for Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13. Persons having things to be hauled away are asked to have them refuse on the curb in suitable containers to aid in speeding up the work. Refuse not on the curb will not be taken, it was announced.

Bills in the approximate amount of $1750 were approved for payment. The police report showed one arrest for disorderly conduct; 9 complaints investigated; three motor vehicle arrests made; 63 parking tickets issued; and parking meter collections of $277.18 for April. Justice of the Peace Brazee reported fines of $18 collected.

Installation of a street light on Highland avenue between Mill street and the Matthews Run bridge was recommended and the committee was instructed to arrange for the purchase and installation of the light.

The question of sick leave for borough employees was discussed briefly, and further discussion on this matter will be held later.

A resident of Davis street extension asked council for water service, and it was explained that the street has not been accepted by the borough and that council could not extend the water line at this time.

Kornreich and James R. Valone, second and a tie for third place between Mrs. Alice J. Russell and Walter Drennan and Charles Billow paired with Anthony Scallise.

Cub Scout Minstrel Is Presented By Youngville Boys

Youngville, May 2—Words of welcome to the large audience in attendance Friday evening for the Cub-Scout minstrel show given in the high school auditorium were extended by Plummer Mourer, Cub-Scout leader, who also introduced the assistant leader, Paul Ransom.

As a prelude to the Cub Scout program, Lewis Crippen read an amusing article entitled, "Boys." The twenty Cub Scouts formed the black-faced minstrel show. David Mourer, with high hat and dress coat, made a very good interlocutor with his clever questions and equally good replies. The boys sang splendidly, having committed to memory a large repertoire of popular songs.

Four clever skits were given by the four dens of Cub Scouts. The first was a dramatization of the song "Clementine," with impersonations by the lads of Den 2, of which Mrs. Carl Anderson is Den Mother. The second skit was very touching in a musical and dance dramatization of "Annie Rooney" and "Dearie." In this skit, half of the songsters assumed the part of girls by wearing becoming hats and fancy garters. This was given by Den 4, with Den Mother Mrs. Wendle Engstrom. The third skit was given by Den 3 with Mrs. Clara Gutierrez as Den Mother, and showed a rhythmic "Shoe Shine scene." The last skit was by Den 1 with Mrs. Ann Carr—Den Mother. This was a hospital scene in which the doctors operated with great success, removing organs, but lost their patient. An accordion solo was given by Glen Anderson, Den 2.

Cub Scouts awards were made by Plummer Mourer to the following: David Mourer—Lion award and Gold Arrow. Wolf rank was given to Ronnie Bill York and Charles Halfast. The parents of both of these lads were called to the stage to pin on the awards. Gold Arrows were awarded to Boyd Simpson, Dick McAllister, Denny Carr and Denny Young.

John McAllister was graduated from the Cub Scouts with a few words of encouragement from Mr. Mourer and was welcomed into Troop 24 of the Youngville Boy Scouts by a member of Troop 24, Dan Warner.

Fraise should be given to the Den Mothers for the excellent program as well as the cubs and also to Mrs. Annabelle Pierce, pianist and to Mrs. John Kirk.

Awards Are Made To Athletes of East Hickory Hi School

East Hickory, May 2—The first annual award banquet of the Hickory Township High school at East Hickory was held at the Endeavor Community House on Friday, April 28, at 8:30 p. m. Invocation voiced by a basketball varsity member, Grace Emick, was followed by group singing led by Mrs. Betty Ball, music director of Hickory High school. A delicious banquet attractively served by the ladies of the Endeavor Presbyterian Missionary Society was much enjoyed.

After dinner P. H. Stahlman, principal of Hickory High school, graciously welcomed the guests and variety and introduced J. Naas, coach of Warren High school, who spoke on the subject, "The Place of Athletics in the School." Mr. Naas began his remarks by saying "This community is, indeed, fortunate to have a man like Mr. Bowser for its coach."

Among many of the fine things Mr. Naas said, the one which will likely be longest remembered was: "The kind of boy you see on the floor indicates the kind of man he will become."

Next on the program were remarks to the varsity and guests by W. E. Bowser, coach of Hickory High school, who presented athletic awards to the following members of the varsity team and the cheer leaders: Robert Babb, Robert Baker, Raymond Brewster, Donald Chapple, Ronald Hunter, Edward Reese, Captain Ronald Ross, William Schall, Francis Scott, John Stahlman, Captain Robert Taft, Captain Walter Thrush, Lou Williams, John Uhlir, Grace M. Emick, Captain Estella M. Holmes, Lois Hunter, Frances E. Mascaro, Naomi Nicholas, Elizabeth A. Nuttall, Charlotte M. Schall, Ruth C. Shawkey, Bonnie M. Smith, Laura A. Tucker, Captain Mary P. Uhlir, Donna Kennedy, Charlene Carll, and Patricia Stoddard.

Then Mr. Brewster introduced his friend and former teacher, Eugene Whetstone, gymnastics coach of Penn State College, whose subject was: "The Place of Awards in the Athletic Program." Mr. Whetstone, who in 1948 led the Olympic team to London, held his audience as he discussed success in athletics and the 1948 Olympic Games in London. He outlined the following rules to reach the top successfully:

- 1—Devotion to the support. For example, the athlete must go to bed early and remember — no smoking, no drinking.
- 2—Intellectual honesty.
- 3—Play the game to win.
- 4—if you don't win, be a good loser.
- 5—There are no short-cuts to success. Success must be won the hard way.
- 6—Mr. Whetstone also told the High school athletes that "Nice things happen to nice people," and then by example proved his statement. Mr. Whetstone finally showed interesting movies of the 1948 trip by boat to London and the Olympic Games there.

Thus ended one of the most enjoyable Hickory High school events on the school year.

Sunset Baseball League to Hold Organization Meeting Tonight

Final organization meeting of the Sunset Baseball League will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the editorial rooms of the Times-Mirror.

Team rosters must be turned in by the managers, and if possible, the $15 entry fee also should be ready. The league plans to open the season on May 22, with Mondays and Wednesdays as game nights. The games will be played on Memorial Field, the State Hospital field and King field.

Five, and possibly six strong teams, are planning to enter the league. Several of the squads already have started practice drills. The Glendora Coffee team, champions of both the Sunset and the Penn-York Leagues last year, apparently will have an even stronger club this season.

The coffee nine's tentative roster was listed as follows: Infielders: Bob Hand, Don Gheres, Tom Juhano, Jerry Vesling, Dick Reed and Ray Reed. Outfielders: Bob Hammerbeck, Bill Massa, with Dave Lopez and Keith Vesling to alternate when they're not pitching; catchers—Bill Brown, Don Sharp, Louie Bonace; and pitchers: Dave Lopez, Keith Vesling, Smoky Bennett, Ray Reed, Dick Kifer and possibly Dean Whitaker.

The Sons of Italy team also is being completely reorganized under its new manager, Dick Pearce. A practice session is slated for Wednesday night at 6 o'clock on King field, or on Thursday night if the Wednesday session is rained out. It was emphasized again that all positions on the team still are open and all persons interested in trying out are asked to be present.

Braves Could Have Had Kiner In Deal That Gave Them Elliott

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Inspired by Ralph Kiner, his roommate, Wally Westlake, is off on a home-run binge for the Pirates. Officials of the Pittsburgh club must shudder every time they think of how close they came to disposing of Kiner, their most magnetic individual attraction and the young man most likely to succeed in breaking Babe Ruth's seasonal home-run record of 60.

In March we wrote about how what would have been the biggest boner in baseball history was narrowly averted. At the Buccaneers' Miami Beach training base in the spring of 1947, Billy Herman, starting his only season as a manager, urged General Manager Roy Hamey to get rid of Kiner.

Although young Kiner had manufactured 23 home runs in his freshman year, his average was no more than .247, and Herman obviously disliked his golf-like swing, didn't believe he'd hit.

By that time, however, Hamey, who came in with the new deal—McKinney, Galbreath, Johnson and Crosby—had got hep to Kiner's potential power and bucks office draw, and refused to go along.

BUT it now develops that the Pittsburgh front office was perfectly willing to let Kiner go the previous late September.

"We could have had him in the deal that gave us Bob Elliott," says Lou Perini, the biggest of the Braves' Three Little Steam Shovels, without as much as kicking himself in the britches. When Messrs. McKinney, Galbreath, Johnson and Crosby took over with all that dough and Hamey, they decided that a manager was of paramount importance.

They picked Herman, the old pro second baseman, then with the Boston Nationals.

Elliott's runs-batted-in production had fallen below 101 for the first time in four years—to 66, to be exact—but Billy Southworth wasn't fooled, and saw a grand opportunity to drive a hard bargain, put across a fast one.

The Reantowners also required a third baseman.

"We'll give you Herman, Infielder Whitey Wietelmann, Pitcher Elmer Singleton and Outfielder Stan Wentzel for Elliott and Catcher Hank Camelli," proposed Southworth, when the Pirates inquired about Elliott.

He wanted Camelli like Custer needed another Indian, but didn't want to appear too eager to land Elliott. The deal was promptly closed.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The White Sox have a young shortstop to go with Cass Michaels, and how Frank Lane obtained 22-year-old Alfonso Carrasquel makes interesting reading.

The Dodgers weren't the only club to hear about Chico Carrasquel down yonder in Venezuela, but as usual Branch Rickey beat the others to the punch. Mahatma Rickey gets the jump on a bright prospect as quickly as the spring-legged Carrasquel starts after the ball.

Fresco Thompson was dispatched to Caracas without delay a year ago last winter. Scout Thompson does not speak a word of Spanish. Carrasquel did not speak a word of English.

There were other obstacles in Foxy Forager Thompson's path, not the least of which was a revolution.

Thompson and Carrasquel couldn't do much business in strange tongues while the laddybucks were taking potshots at one another in the streets.

But when the last shot was fired, Thompson landed his prize.

Ed Tatler, an American Association umpire who worked games in Venezuela, had told General Manager Lane of the Chicago Americans of Carrasquel.

When Brother Rickey started unloading talent last fall, he talked Sad Sam Jethroe and Dan Bankhead to Lane.

WHEN Rickey saw that Lane wasn't interested in Outfielder Jethroe or Pitcher Bankhead, he told the Pale Horse's head man that he'd give him a list of players of which he could take his pick.

Carrasquel could have been sent out three times more. Rickey doesn't ordinarily dispose of stickout youngsters who can be optioned.

But by mistake he put Carrasquel's name on the list handed Lane, and beside it the price, $50,000.

Rickey plainly wanted to do business with the White Sox, told Lane to put what he thought was a fair price on Carrasquel. Lane said just half, $25,000. Rickey said he had to have three ballplayers too, but nothing was closed.

In New York a few days later, Lane telegraphed Rickey in Brooklyn: "Deal is OK. When can release press?"

Rickey telephoned, said he had made no deal. Lane convinced him that he had, so Rickey, no man to go back on his word, let Chico Carrasquel go—for $35,000 and two players.

K. of C. American Championship Won By St. Louis Squad

St. Louis copped the championship of the Knights of Columbus American League by beating Loyola, 2472 to 2418, in a rolloft at the Arcade tenpin lanes. The match was close all the way, but St. Louis was able to win all three games by scores of 788 to 767, 815 to 803 and 860 to 848.

Chingo Scalise set the best pace for the champions with 172-170-206-548. C. Bonavita was top scorer for Loyola with 185-188-177-530.

Frank Gerardi, anchor for Fordham, finished the regular league season with the top average, a nifty 180. Andy Randinelli, cleanup man for Santa Clara, was just a step behind with a 179 rating.

The individual average, listed by teams:

Duquesne: R. Slatem 17; J. Gurdack, 162; J. Zolko, 162; E. Leofsky, 120; E. Stec, 128; F. Gagliardi, 176.

Musial and Mitchell Wielding Big Sticks

New York, May 2—(P)—Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals and Cleveland's sharp-hitting Dale Mitchell top the major leagues in batting.

Musial, who once led a Minor League in pitching, has shaken the enigma of a slow start, and is a lousy first in the National League with a .448 batting average.

Mitchell, a six-foot-one Oklahoman, is the No. 1 man in the American League with a .406 mark. Figures, based on 25 times at bat, include games of Sunday, April 30.

Mitchell, with 13 hits in 32 trips, holds a 17-point edge on Detroit's Johnny Groth, runnerup at .389. Hank Majeski of Chicago is next with .385, followed by New York's diminutive Phil Rizzuto at .371.

Al Zarilla, Boston outfielder, is a shade behind with .370.

In the National, Musial hit safely 13 times in 29 tries. New York's Alvin Dark, the transplanted Boston shortstop, is hitting at a .423 pace. He's the only one of the five regulars involved in the big winter deal among the top 10 hitters.

Gil Hodges of Brooklyn rounds out the "400 Club" with a .406 mark. Willie (Fuddin' Head) Jones is fourth with .365 and Pittsburgh's Johnny Hopp fifth with .351.

Pleasant Township Residents Irked By Road Closing

The Warren County Motor Club was advised today that the highway between the western end of the borough and the Lily Pond crossing of the New York Central through Starbuck has been closed because of the reconstruction. As announced before, through traffic over U. S. Route 6 is being detoured via North Warren, Chancellors Valley, Matthews Run road and Youngville.

The closing of the road poses a problem for hundreds of employees of the National Forge & Ordnance Co. residing in the Pleasant township area, who hoped to use the Grunderville road to the Irvine bridge in getting to and from their work. It was reported at the State Highway office this afternoon that bad weather has interfered with the work of improving the Grunderville road, which is said to be almost impassable at the present time. Until such time as this road dries out and becomes passable, National Forge employees residing in Warren and Pleasant township will be compelled to drive the long detour mentioned above.

The closing of the road complicates the fuel situation at the new generating plant of the Pennsylvania Electric Company, although it is understood that emergency arrangements have been completed that will keep the flow of coal rolling into the plant. For the time being trucks will have access to the plant from either direction. Should a situation develop that would prevent arrival of trucks for a short period of time it would be possible to continue operations with fuel from the stock pile, which at present has a supply that would last for forty days.

According to plant officials trucks have been using one of two routes in reaching Warren from the Clarion coal fields, and both of these will be shut off through construction projects—the route through Tionesta to Irvine and Starbuck, and the other through Sheffield and Warren.

AUTHORITY ON RUGS AT METZGER-WRIGHTS

The Metzger-Wright store announces that A. G. Sarien, an Armenian authority on genuine hand made Oriental rugs, is conducting a display and sale at the store this week.

"The art of weaving," he says, "is one of the earliest arts and can be traced back to Babylon 6000 years before Christ."

Oriental rugs are divided into six classifications: Persian, Turkish, Kurdish, Chinese, Turkoman and Caucasian. Mr. Sarien interprets the symbols used on the Oriental rugs and their significance to the people, which is highly interesting.

Even the religious beliefs and characteristics of the weavers are revealed by their patterns.

The rugs on display are valuable and original antiques and not the commercial type nor the cheap imitation of Oriental rugs.

This promises to be a real treat to those who love beauty and art, and also those interested in the art of weaving.

AN APPRECIATION

The Committee from the Dinsmore-Schwartz Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, with Homer Fitch as chairman, in charge of the Loyalty Day Parade held in Warren Monday evening, take this means of expressing sincere appreciation for wholehearted cooperation received in making the event a success. The committee is particularly grateful to School Board officials and Director Harry Summers, for the appearance of the high school band, also to the various fire departments, and for the excellent cooperation received from borough officials and the police department, as well as radio station WNAE and the press.

SOCIETY

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Bonnell, 11 Schanz street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary E. to Charles C. Leuthold, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Leuthold, 14 Russell street. No date has been set for the wedding.

LARSON-KENNEDY

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kennedy, Oakview park, announce the marriage of their daughter, Marilyn Jane, to Edwin Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Larson, Oakview Park, which took place at the court house Monday, with Justice of the Peace Eleanor Fogie Smith officiating. They will reside at Oakview Park.

NEW YORK HAS PARADE

New York, May 2—(P)—New York's left-wing May Day parade drew mixed cheers and jeers from the spectators yesterday—plus a few eggs and vegetables. The parade down Eighth Avenue was one of the smallest May Day parades of recent years. Police estimated the marchers at 13,400, while the parade committee set its figure at about 20,000.

CONSTRUCTION WORK CLIMBS: Building permits for new construction and for alterations and repairs soared to a healthy $117,698 for Warren borough last month. C. A. Miller, chairman of the Buildings and Building Code Committee, reported at the May meeting of town council. Sites of two of the major projects are shown in these staff photos. Top picture shows start of work on the new Presbyterian Church manse in Market street, for which a permit for $20,000 worth of new construction was issued, the second photo shows the old Penelec substation in Eddy street, which will be altered into a storage space and garage for the utility. The permit for alterations valued this work at $40,000. The total valuation for the building permits issued last month was divided as follows: $45,850 for new construction, and $72,048 for alterations and repairs.

New Petition Received On Zoning Law Given Tentative Approval

zoning ordinance to permit apartments, and apartment buildings with facilities for transients in any residential area.

The Zoning Commission said in its report that the effect would be to permit apartments in any section of the borough, and that the phrasing of the petition concerning "facilities for transients" was "undefined, indefinite and too inclusive and would permit cocktail lounges, bars and public garages in residential areas."

The Commission recommended that this petition be denied because it was "contrary to good zoning practices."

Council President Rice then set Wednesday, May 18, at 7:30 o'clock as the date and time for council to hold a hearing, as required by law, on the same petition.

Arthur S. Storm, of Bradford, who is seeking authority to erect the apartment building in Liberty street, then asked council if the hearing on the new petition, presented to council last night, could be held at the same time.

Storm was informed that the date and time for that hearing must be set by the Commission.

Council then gave unanimous approval to a resolution directing the five-man Zoning Commission to immediately begin revision of the zoning ordinance and the zoning map in line with the program originally laid out by the commission.

This resolution gives the commission authority to break-down the present all-inclusive residential classification into several subdivisions, similar to the two classifications now embodied in the ordinance for Commercial districts, and to recommend other changes in line with a long-range zoning program for the community.

DRIVERS ON HARMONY SHORT LINES STRIKE

Pittsburgh, May 2—(P)—The 130 bus drivers of Harmony Short Lines went on strike this morning demanding a 25-cent-an-hour wage increase.

The bus company serves an average of 150,000 patrons daily with 91 regularly scheduled buses in the Ohio-Allegheny valley west of Pittsburgh as far north as Erie.

The firm's contract with the union expired Sunday night, as did the contracts of 10 other western Pennsylvania transit firms, including Pittsburgh's street car and bus system.

INFANT IS THIR'D VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Sharon, May 2—(P)—Eight-month-old Raymond Martin, Jr. died in Buhl hospital last night, third victim of the crash that killed his father and sister.

Record Budget of $646,304 Given Tentative Approval

ment of $50 to the First Presbyterian church for commencement. Permission for use of buildings was granted Johnson PTA for its building May 19; East Street PTA for its building May 10; Home Street Mothers Club for that building May 12; Lacy PTA Scouts for their building May 15, and the high school auditorium by the Warren County Medical Society May 11 and 18.

Progress on the Home street school was reported held up by lack of mill work; reconditioning of Bealy track is being done through cooperation of the Boro and Sherwood Refining Company; written reports were presented for March attendance and April dental and medical programs; Principal Floyd Bathurst presented a very commendable report on college records of 49 members of last year's graduating class.

The teachers' committee recommended Joseph Spence as art supervisor in elementary grades; approved the transfer of Mrs. Helen Lammstein to teach kindergarten and elected Mrs. Mary Conway as an elementary teacher.

The board accepted the resignation of Cecilia Eurch, who has been on sabbatical leave this year and will take up college librarianship work in California.

Joseph Passaro reported 105 members of the senior class have been given the General Aptitude Test Battery by the Pennsylvania State Employment Service.

The superintendent was asked to thank the local office for this service and request its continuation for another year.

James Springer reported available for 1950-51 the Atlantic Refining Company's safety unit for five-mile road tests of drivers in the high school, and the board requested its continuation, also.

Superintendent Whipple was authorized to participate in a panel at the University of Pittsburgh July 20.

Mr. Bathurst reported receipt of a letter from Dr. G. G. Hill, business education department head at Indiana State Teachers College, commending the local school program as he found it in a visit in Warren recently.

The board accepted the invitation of the home economics department to serve dinner to members and their wives preceding the May 22 meeting.

client be put on probation. He told a reporter he would appeal the case within a few days.

Now 57, Maragon came to this country as a Greek immigrant, became a Kansas City shoe shine boy and later built up Washington friendships that included presidential military aide Harry Vaughan.

He got in trouble last summer when he testified to the senate committee that investigated five percenters—persons who charge a fee that usually is five per cent for representing others in business dealings with the government.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren's funeral homes are from 10 a. m. to 12; 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

ORRIN RICHARD WOOD

Orrin Richard Wood, age 82, 705½ Fourth avenue, died this morning at the Warren General Hospital. Removal was made to the W. E. Lutz Funeral Home. More extended obituary and funeral announcement will be made later.

MYRTLE FORNELL BERG

Cole Hill, May 2. Services were held at two o'clock last Thursday afternoon at a funeral home in Euclid, O., for Mrs. Fornell Berg, who died at 9:10 a. m. Monday at the home of her brother, John Holmer Fornell, 40 Peach street, Jamestown, N. Y. Interment was made in Lakeview cemetery in Cleveland. The Euclid rites were preceded by a prayer service from the Powers Funeral Home in Jamestown at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Berg was born on the Fornell homestead at the foot of Cole Hill, August 29, 1867, the daughter of John H. and Hulda Vicander Fornell. In 1912 she was confirmed in the First Lutheran church, Jamestown. She was united in marriage in Cleveland, in March 1917, to Carl Berg, who preceded her in death on April 9, 1941. Since that time she has made her home with her brothers and sisters.

Surviving her are the following brothers and sisters: John Helmer, of Jamestown; Henry, of Celoron; Fred, of Ashville; Mrs. Anna Anderson, Cleveland; Mrs. Jennie Peterson, Jamestown; Mrs. Mary Simpson, New London, N. H. Another brother, David, preceded her in death seven weeks ago.

DOROTHEA FRANCES MILLER

Miss Dorothea Frances Miller, 2 West Fifth avenue, passed away Monday afternoon after an extended illness.

She was born in Franklin, had been a resident of Warren for the past nineteen years, and had been a member of the First Evangelical United Brethren church.

Surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, of Warren, and two brothers, Roy Miller, at home, and Jack Miller, of the University of Pittsburgh.

Friends are being received at the Leo D. Gibson Funeral Home at the usual hours starting this evening and funeral services will be held from there Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. A. J. Kimmel officiating. Interment will follow in Pine Grove Cemetery at Russell.

MRS. LULA LAMB

Word has been received here that Mrs. Lula Lamb, widow of George Lamb, Westline, died last Wednesday morning in Kane Community Hospital. She was born at Barkeyville on April 16, 1888.

Surviving her are the following children: Mrs. Grover Cutlip, Westline; Victor Lamb, Upper Lisle, N. Y.; Kenneth Yahn, Beaver Falls; Lester Lamb, Coraopolis; Paul Lamb, Tionesta; also five grandchildren, and a brother, Elmer Yard, of Barkeyville.

A prayer service was held at her home in Westline at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, after which removal was made to the Barkeyville Evangelical church for services conducted by Rev. Johnson, Lutheran minister of Wilcox. Interment was made in the Barkeyville cemetery, with the following nephews serving as bearers: Kenneth, Chester, Alton, Merle and Franklin Yard and John Roddy.

between news distribution and the underworld in Kansas City." He was prepared to place a copy of the grand jury report in the record of the gambling investigation.

City and state officials have identified Continental as the chief distributor of racing news used by the nation's bookies—and as the major link in big time gambling on races.

But Continental's General Manager Thomas J. Kelly of Chicago has said the accusations were "slandorous and libelous." He defended Continental as a legitimate enterprise operating entirely within the law. Kelly and his chief accountant Joseph Labit were called to testify before the committee.

Continental's name was mentioned in the grand jury report on the slaying of Political Leader Charles Baggio and his henchman Charles Gargotta. The jury said Gargotta had turned informant on a $34,500,000 gambling market.

Gen. Bradley Asks For Retention of Regulations

all mobilization plan can be written.

Vinson said that he is recommending that Chairman Stuart Smythington of the National Security Resources Board, draw up such a plan for consideration by congress at its next session.

Bradley, Secretary of Defense Johnson, Secretary of State Acheson and other leaders appeared before the committee last January urging retention of the draft.

But Vinson came up with a bill that would have repealed all provisions of the draft except registration and classification.

Hiss Is Debarred In New York Courts

New York, May 2—(P)—Alger Hiss, former high state department official convicted of perjury, was debarred today from practicing law in New York State.

The appellate division of the supreme court formally struck Hiss' name from the roll of attorneys.

It ruled that his two-count perjury conviction in federal court were constituted commission of felonies and that Hiss therefore ceased to be a qualified attorney.

Hiss was convicted by a federal court jury Jan. 21, 1950, and four days later was sentenced to a term of five years in prison. The case is being appealed.

The former State Department official was found guilty of lying under oath in denying that he ever gave secret government papers to Whittaker Chambers, self-styled courier for a pre-war Soviet spy ring.

Lattimore Declares Under Oath Charges He Was Top Spy Is Not Supported

sia's No. 1 espionage agent in this country.

Also at that time, Lattimore challenged McCarthy to produce witnesses who would swear he was a Communist.

McCarthy turned up with Budenz, who was managing editor of the Daily Worker until he renounced Communism in 1945. Budenz swore he had been told that Lattimore was a member of a Communist cell, and that the party leaders had disciplinary power over him.

Referring to Budenz today, Lattimore told the committee: "The screen of lies behind which he disguised his lack of information is very thin, indeed."

In terming McCarthy a bad policy risk, Lattimore turned back on the senator a phrase which McCarthy had applied to Lattimore.

After a call at the White House last week, Publisher William T. Ewings of the Madison, Wis., Capital Times told newsmen he had given President Truman a report on McCarthy's "background," including:

1. A recommendation by the Wisconsin state board of bar commissioners that McCarthy be debarred because he did not resign his state circuit judgeship while running for the senate in 1946. The state supreme court took note of the recommendation but nothing came of it.

2. An order by state authorities that McCarthy pay $3,500 in state income taxes on $43,000 of 1945 income which Ewings said McCarthy did not report.

3. A sharp criticism of McCarthy by the Wisconsin supreme court because part of the record of the case heard before McCarthy was missing when an appeal was taken to the higher court.

Ewings said McCarthy had launched his charges of Communism in government "to rehabilitate his shattered political fortunes."

Lattimore has threatened to sue McCarthy for libel and has dared him to repeat—without protection of senatorial immunity—the charges McCarthy made in congress. So far McCarthy has refused to repeat his main accusations under those circumstances.

pose and subversive propaganda." Then he added:

"That it has done so at once brings into question its right to the further benefits and protection of the country and laws it would subvert and raises doubt as to whether it should longer be regarded as a constitutionally recognized political movement."

The occupation chief raised the same question last July 4 when he labeled Communism "national and international outlawry."

Today he called it "this form of international political perfidy, social deception and territorial fraud."

MacArthur cautioned the Japanese that the question of outlawing the Communist party "should, of course, be resolved calmly, justly and dispassionately with the same consideration and safeguards extended to any anti-social force in a peaceful and law-abiding community."

tion will conclude with a Firemen's and Veterans' parade, with large prizes in store for this event. The committee announced, also, that the Eastman carnival will be on the midway for the entire week.

A fine spirit of cooperation is already in the making, and indicates that this year's celebration will be the largest ever staged.

Following adjournment of the meeting, a lunch was served by the committee in charge.

Philadelphia, May 2—(P)—J. Hampton Moore, two-term mayor of Philadelphia and a member of the U. S. congress for seven terms, died today after an illness of two years. He was 86.

Ordinance Accepting Athletic Field Given Approval

enue. The letter said that Hammond Iron has entered into an agreement for purchase of a property adjoining the present plant site and that more suitable arrangements could be made by the company for providing an access route for trucks to the Hammond plant. While the name of the property was not mentioned in the letter, it is understood that the deal involves the property occupied by the Nu-Guard Chemicals plant which was heavily damaged by fire last fall.

Property owners along the unpaved section of Lexington avenue originally had signed a petition objecting to paving the street, but most of them withdrew their objection when Hammond Iron offered to pay a good-sized portion of the paving assessment.

T. K. Creal, II, chairman of the New Projects Committee, said that in view of the withdrawal of Hammond Iron's request for paving the street, and the original objections entered by the property owners, it was the feeling of the committee that the street be dropped from the borough's street improvement program for the present.

Council President Rice then read a letter from the Warren Industrial and Development Corporation (WIDCO) which recently purchased Russell field for a new Sylvania plastics plant. The letter, quoting from the minutes of the corporation's annual stockholders meeting yesterday, urged council to carry out the paving of Lexington avenue as planned, but added that the corporation was willing to accept whatever decision council made in the matter.

A petition, signed by property owners, asking council to consider the paving of Hazel street between Fourth and Fifth avenues, was read and referred to the new projects committee.

George Klinefelter, chairman of the streets committee, was authorized to advertise for bids for a new two-ton dump truck to replace a borough-owned truck that has been in service since 1938. The old truck will be turned in as part payment on the new unit.

Borough Engineer C. W. Barwis reported that he and several councilmen had conferred with New York Central Railroad officials to see what might be done about improving the N. Y. C. right-of-way in Fourth avenue.

Barwis said he was assured the company is anxious to cooperate, and that if the borough resurfaces the street with blacktop, the railroad will pay the cost of similar resurfacing between the rails to make a smooth surface for the entire width of the street.

Estimated cost to the borough of resurfacing Fourth avenue between Market street and Public Way, Barwis reported, was between $12,000 and $15,000.

Streets Committee Chairman Klinefelter said this resurfacing was not included in the 1950 budget, but added that he and his committee thought it would be a "very worthwhile project."

Leon Laaskaris, chairman of the finance committee, said he thought money for the paving could be "squeezed out" of the budget in some manner.

Barwis also reported that in event the resurfacing of the street is not authorized this summer, the railroad plans to oil the right-of-way as often as needed to keep down the dust.

Two police regulations setting up one-way streets were approved by the solons on recommendation of the police committee. The first regulation makes Water street from its intersection with Market street, a one-way street for east-bound traffic as far as its intersection with Pennsylvania avenue, west.

The second regulation makes Plum street, on the East Side, a one-way street for southbound traffic from its intersection with Lexington avenue.

The two regulations are in line with recommendations made by the State Highways Department for improving the borough's traffic signal system.

Burgess W. F. Crossett also reported that the equipment has arrived for altering the light sequence on the traffic signals to conform with state requirements. This work will be started as soon as the contractor has completed installation of new traffic signals at the intersections of Market street and Fifth avenue, and at Fifth and Conewango avenues.

The police report for the month of April listed 250 arrests, and collection of $654 in fines. The arrests included four for drunkenness, two for disorderly conduct, 183 for parking violations (mainly overstay at meters), 14 for crashing traffic lights, 35 for ignoring stop signs, nine for driving too fast for conditions and one for parking too near a fire hydrant.

Collections during April from the street meters totaled $1633.88, compared with $1614.38 for the same period in 1949. The meters at the rear of the Municipal building yielded $106.42 during the past month, it was reported.

Chief of Police George Haehn was authorized by council to advertise for the owners of several bicycles, now in possession of the police, to call for their property, and to sell at public sale all such unclaimed bikes.

A request by an agent to attach tri-cornered advertising signs to the parking meter posts was rejected unanimously. The advertising, as explained to council, may have netted the borough $1500 a year maximum. Councilman George Geracimos said he

Pittsburgh Grocer Wounded By Thugs

Pittsburgh, May 2—(P)—A city-wide manhunt swept Pittsburgh today for two thugs who shot and critically wounded a 44-year-old grocer in a holdup at a store.

The victim was Stephen M. Brascick. He was shot twice. One bullet hit just under his heart, the other struck below his left arm. The bandits fled without taking any loot.

Brascick's wife, Mary, 57, gave police this story.

She was behind the counter last night when the men entered. She asked them, "What can I do for you?"

Without a word one of them whipped out a pistol. She screamed. Her husband, who had been sitting behind the counter and hidden by boxes, leaped to his feet. Startled by Brascick's sudden appearance, the robber started shooting. The hoodlums fled as the stricken man slumped to the floor.

The bandits paused outside to look at him through the store window.

Police Inspector John Flavin ordered 15 policemen to search the area.

Mrs. Brascick said the men were both negroes about six feet tall, wearing hats and light trench coats.

WILLIAMS PROMISES TO CLEAN UP BOXING

Williamsport, May 2—(P)—Judge Charles Scott Williams promised today that if elected governor he would make a "real investigation" into what he termed "the boxing and wrestling racket in Pennsylvania."

Williams, candidate for the Republican nomination, said in a statement that "it took federal narcotic investigators, and not the state boxing authorities, to discover that a licensed heavyweight boxer had been under the influence of drugs in two matches in Pennsylvania this year."

Williams said that supervision of boxing in the state is a joke but a very tragic joke, and asked "Where were the boxing commission's doctors?"

He said a member of the State Athletic Commission "finally was awakened by the federal narcotic investigators and now he promises an investigation."

THE MARKETS

New York, May 2—(P)—The stock market followed a steady course today after climbing to the highest level in nearly four years yesterday. The market showed an inclination to extend the advance but it was no more than a whim.

The list was well suited with issues which either remained at Monday's final prices or backed down a trifle. Changes either way were mostly fractional.

Lively trading developed although there was some slow-down after a rapid-fire opening.
